Progressing to university

By studying your pathway programme online, you can still finish on time and progress to your Degree programme as planned. We are here to help you succeed, so that you can achieve your academic ambitions and look forward to an exciting future.

How will I be assessed?

Your lecturers will set you a range of tasks and assessments and continually provide feedback on your work. This will help you stay motivated and make progress during your pathway programme.

Your assessments will be a mix of:

- Exams
- Live question and answer sessions
- Presentations
- Projects and coursework
- Quizzes

The schedule for these assessments will be sent to you, along with clear instructions on how to upload these to meet important deadlines, and there will even be virtual supervisors available during your exams.
