About Curtin

Curtin is a world-ranked, global university recognised for industry-connected programs that provide skills for agile careers.

Inspired by the motto 'Look ever forward', Curtin has thrived over the past 57 years. Established in Australia in 1967, Curtin is now a global university with campuses and locations in a further five countries: Malaysia, Singapore, the United Arab Emirates, Mauritius and Sri Lanka.

Curtin's approach to university education is driven by five core values – integrity, respect, courage, excellence and impact – and is underpinned by our dedication to building education and research partnerships that make a positive difference, both for people and the planet. Our range of courses, research strengths, learning facilities and industry partnerships make Curtin a popular choice for students around the world. In particular, Curtin is renowned for immersive learning and simulated work environments to ensure that our students can apply professional expertise as soon as they graduate.
